

Wine Spectator

90 B.R. COHN 2007 Pinot Noir Russian River Valley | $40.

Combines firm, ripe, earthy cherry and wild berry fruit with loamy earth, mineral and sage. Full-bodied and structured, this holds its focus, retaining traction on the finish, where it offers a hint of lavender. Drink now through 2016. 1,000 cases made. —J.L.

Top 15 California Pinot Noirs

“2007 is probably the best Pinot Noir vintage across the map in California’s history...”

POSTED: MARCH 1, 2010

www.winespectator.com