

Green Salad with Orange, Fennel & Asparagus

- 3 qt loosely packed tender salad greens
- 1 lb thick asparagus, ends trimmed
- 3 medium oranges
- 1 small bulb fennel, trimmed & sliced thin
- ½ cup B.R. Cohn Mandarin Orange Olive Oil
- ⅓ cup fresh chives, finely chopped
- 2 tbsp B.R. Cohn Chardonnay Vinegar
- 1 ½ tsp B.R. Cohn Stone Ground Mustard
- 1 tsp finely grated orange zest
- ½ tsp salt
- ¼ tsp freshly ground black pepper
- ⅛ tsp sugar

Look for tender greens, such as mâche, Boston, and red leaf lettuces, which appear in farmers' markets. Or, as an alternative, use premixed baby greens. In small bowl, whisk together B.R. Cohn Chardonnay Vinegar, B.R. Cohn Stone Ground Mustard, sugar, salt, and pepper. Gradually whisk in B.R. Cohn Mandarin Orange Olive Oil, then zest. In large sauté pan, bring 1 inch water to boil. Add asparagus and simmer until bright green, about 1 minute. Drain in colander, then rinse under cold running water until cool. Thinly slice on diagonal and transfer to large bowl. Cut peel and white pith from oranges. Working over medium bowl, cut between membranes to release segments. Add segments and any juice in medium bowl to large bowl with asparagus; squeeze juice from membranes into dressing and whisk to combine. Add fennel and then salad greens to large bowl. Drizzle with dressing and toss gently. Sprinkle chives on top and serve immediately.
